

FLAMENCO WORKSHOP
and party

Thursday July 5th, 2007
6:00 – 9:00 PM
Old Brick Community Center
26 East Market St, Iowa City, IA

Instructor: Brenda Neville

The workshop is designed for beginners-intermediate and will cover:
Palmas (12 count rhythm)
Braceo (basic arm work)
Basic footwork
Basics for Sevillanas

Price $30

Advanced registration recommended.

Contact Nora Garda at iowadancefest@gmail.com
319.400.4695

Brenda Neville has spent the last two decades performing and choreographing ballet, modern, Argentine tango, flamenco, and other ethnic dances in 18 different countries including Argentina, China, Hungary, Japan, and Spain, with companies such as Milwaukee Ballet, Indianapolis Dance Co, Allnations Dance Co, Marc DeGarmo and Dancers, and Covenant Dance Theatre. An active dance teacher, she has been a faculty dance instructor at The Ailey School, the New Ballet School and Covenant Dance Theatre where she is currently teaching ballet and ethnic dances.

For more information visit: <http://www.nevilledance.com>

Bring something to eat/drink to share and we'll stay and party after the workshop.